Power of attorney until revoked:

Until revoked in writing, the client authorizes ITG Air & Sea GmbH (ITG) based on the Customs Department's General Terms and Conditions (Customs General T&C) to handle customs for export consignments on its behalf and for its account and to undertake all actions associated with customs clearance.

The Customs General T&Cs are available at http:// https://www.itg.de/de/de/infothek/downloads.html Upon signing the document, the customer recognizes the validity of the current Customs General T&C. It is explicitly referred to the liability restrictions of the General German Freight Forwarders' Standard Terms and Conditions 2017 (ADSp 2017). The Customs General T&Cs refer to the ADSp 2017.

Information on export consignments:

All information and details required for issuing an export declaration are provided to ITG in writing directly from the client.

Declaration process:

The client is an "approved exporter". Authorization No.: _____

The client is an "authorized exporter". Authorization No.: _____

If the client does not have their own official customs authorizations for the simplified customs procedures, ITG will complete customs clearance using what is referred to as a standard procedure. ITG uses its own software for customs clearance.

The client declares:

- The client is the seller/exporter of the goods being cleared.
- The client is aware that through the customs declaration they become declarant under the provisions of customs law.
- The client is aware that the export notice is only provided when handled properly by the customs office of exit. If an electronic ATLAS export procedure does not generate an export notice, ITG shall assume no liability for this.
- The client assumes the responsibility for the completeness and correctness of all documents and information required to execute orders. ITG is not obligated to check the documents for completeness and correctness.
- The client is responsible for export checks on the goods being exported.

AEO certification is available: Authorization No.: _____

(In case the AEO status has been temporarily or finally suspended, we are obligated to inform ITG immediately)
